WELCOME DERBY FANS

ROLLER DERBY is a legitimate sport played by real, badass, women athletes. The hits are real, the falls are real, and the bruises are definitely real! Each bout, or game, incorporates complex and ever-changing strategy.

FoCo Roller Derby, Northern Colorado's first roller derby league, has been dishing out hip-checks since January 2006.

NEW TO DERBY?

THE POSITIONS

JAMMER: The players with the star on their helmets use speed and agility to score as many points as possible during each jam.

LEAD JAMMER: The first jammer to cut through the pack legally can call off the jam anytime by placing her hands on her hips.

PACK: Three blockers and one pivot from each team attempt to stop the opposing jammer from scoring points

.....
PIVOT: The players with the stripe on their helmets set the pace for the pack and serve as the last line of defense

.....
BLOCKERS: These versatile players follow the pivot to clear a path for their jammer and destroy the opposing jammer.

WHAT THE %*^(#@ IS GOING ON?

HOW WE ROLL

- Each game, called a bout, consists of two 30-minute halves.
- Each period contains multiple jams that can last up to 2 minutes.
- Before each jam, 5 players from each team line up on the track.
- The pack and jammer are released at the single whistle.
- The first jammer to make it through the pack legally is called lead jammer.

HOW WE SCORE

- Jammers are the only players who can score, but first they have to make it through the pack once.
- On their second trip through the pack, jammers gain a point for each opposing player they pass legally.
- The lead jammer controls the score by calling off the jam at anytime. She does this by tapping her hands on her hips.

LEAD JAMMER
HAND SIGNAL

CAN SHE DO THAT?!?
